EXPERIENCE

W3Schools Bootcamp, Remote — Full Stack Developer

March 2023 - August 2023

Developed a comprehensive full-stack application employing React, Express, Python and Git. Deployed the backend application and database to a hosting platform. Key aspects of the project include:

- Worked on creating various types of applications, including eCommerce platforms, booking systems, ticketing systems, and social media platforms.
- Implemented RESTful APIs with Express, and included middleware for tasks like authentication and logging.
- Worked as a team to develop an API endpoint, fostering a collaborative environment.
- Added styling to the frontend and ensured the design was responsive, so it looked great on different screen sizes.
- Followed best practices by using .env variables for sensitive information, writing clear comments, maintaining good variable naming conventions, and abstracting reusable code into functions.
- Managed code using Git, which helped with version control and team collaboration.
